

COUNTY COURT'S ORDER IN STEWARD CASE VOID

Appellate Court Reversed Judge Leech in Steward Case

In the litigation involving the estate of Kate B. Stewart, late of Steward, the Appellate Court at Ottawa filed an opinion Friday which may terminate the various items of litigation involving this large estate. In the case decided two farms were involved, located in Reynolds and Ashton townships, which have been occupied by Ernest M. Nefstead, who was defendant in the suits commenced against him by George C. Dixon, trustee by appointment of the Circuit court, and by Dr. Edgar C. Cook of Mendota, who has a contract to purchase one of the farms. In these cases, County Judge William Leech entered judgments in favor of Nefstead, but the Appellate court has reversed the judgments of the county court of Lee county and entered an order in favor of the plaintiff and ousting Nefstead from possession of the 255 acre farm in Reynolds township and the 218 acre farm in Ashton township, holding that the county court should have rendered such a judgment last year when the cases were tried.

Order Held Void.

The contention of Nefstead was that he had rented the farms from Martin D. Barnett, administrator of the estate, based upon an order entered by Judge Leech authorizing Barnett to manage and rent the 1000 acres of farm lands and other real estate belonging to the estate. The Appellate court opinion holds that the order of the county judge of Lee county was void and that an administrator cannot be authorized by that court to manage and rent real estate or have any authority over it, with the single exception of getting an order of court to sell real estate when there are debts of the estate amounting to more than the value of the personal property of the estate.

In the Steward estate, the Circuit court of Lee county entered a decree in 1934 appointing Dixon trustee and directing him to sell all of the real estate belonging to the estate and after paying legacies provided in Mrs. Stewart's will, to divide the money between three charitable institutions to which she had willed the residue of her estate, being the Methodist Deaconess Orphanage and the Agard Deaconess Rest Home, located near Chicago, and the Berry Schools, an orphan's institution located in the state of Georgia.

Contracted to Sell.

Acting under court orders, Trustee Dixon entered into a contract to sell the Reynolds farm to Dr. Cook for $28,000, but was unable to get possession of the farm because of Nefstead relying upon Barnett's verbal lease of the premises to him, based upon the order of the county court, which the Appellate court opinion overrules. The Appellate court opinion overrules the contention of Nefstead that the trustee had no authority to act until the administrator filed his final report and the estate was closed, and various other legal defenses interposed by Nefstead to the suits to oust him from the two farms. The opinion further states:

"Barnett took no interest in the real estate of the testator by virtue of his appointment. Barnett was not appointed by Mrs. Stewart's will to administer the trust, but was acting under appointment of the county court as administrator. The County court has no chancery powers and no authority to administer trusts. Under the authorities herein cited the Circuit court has exclusive jurisdiction and the decree vested the legal title to the premises involved in Dixon, trustee, and authorized and empowered him to institute this proceeding. We are clearly of the opinion that there is no merit in appellee's contentions and that under the undisputed facts as they appear in this record, appellant is entitled to recover possession of these premises and the lower court erred in rendering the judgment appealed from. That judgment is reversed and this cause is remanded to the trial court with directions to render judgment for the plaintiff."

BARRATTO'HARA FILES CONTEST IN COURT TODAY

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—(AP)—The state canvassing board today was notified that Barratto'Hara of Chicago, who was elected lieutenant governor in 1912, is contesting for one of the Democratic nominations as a congressman-at-large in the April primary.

The canvassed return showed that O'Hara was slightly more than 10,000 votes behind E. V. Champion of Peoria, who was on the Democratic regular organization slate.

In a suit filed in Cook county Circuit court, O'Hara alleged that fraudulent voting in many Chicago precincts kept him from getting the nomination.

Lewis M. Long of Sandwich, also on the organization slate, led the Democratic field for congressman-at-large. Horner Democrats voted for Long and O'Hara in an effort to defeat Champion.

Certificates of nomination will not be issued until the contest is settled. This was the last day for filing primary contests.

Two Mine Workers Killed by a Blast

Rosiclar, Ill., May 16.—(AP)—Two men were killed today by a delayed dynamite blast while working in a fluor spar mine here. Company officials said the men killed were Frank Craig, 40, and Lester Belt, about 35, both of Rosiclar.

The blast was believed to have occurred between 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning. The bodies were removed from the mine at 8 A. M. The belief was expressed that the men, who were blasting down rock and spar, probably encountered a wet hole which caused the fuse to burn slower than usual and when they returned to examine it the dynamite exploded.

Both bodies were badly mangled. Craig is survived by his widow and several children. Belt was not married.

SEEK SLAYER OF FEDERAL AGENT IN TWO STATES

Companion Names Killer of Revenue Officer Thursday

Chicago, May 16.—(AP)—Harlan Crouch, bootlegger named as the slayer of Federal Revenue Agent John R. Foster, was hunted in two states today.

Squads of government operatives and police searched for him here and in northern Indiana while others maintained an all-night vigil at underworld haunts and his home in Indianapolis.

Crouch, 43, was sought after E. C. Yellowley, chief of the alcohol tax unit for the Chicago area, announced late yesterday he had been named as the gunman in the confession of James Jacobs, alias Jones, of near Indianapolis.

Jacobs' statement related he and Crouch were attempting to run 200 gallons of alcohol from Chicago Heights, Ill., to Indianapolis early last Thursday when they were overtaken during a 60 mile an hour pursuit near St. John, Ind.

Bootlegger's Story

"The car chased us," he was quoted. "We knew it must contain revenue agents. We couldn't shake them off, so we turned down a dirt road. I stepped out of the car and Crouch stood in a running board with a rifle. As their car approached, Crouch let them have it, firing four shots."

Leaving Foster dead but his colleague, Guy Gooren, unscathed, Jacobs told Yellowley, they drove to Chicago Heights. They eluded a Chicago Heights police squad but Jacobs was seized shortly afterward in a restaurant Crouch fled.

Meeting of City Council is Short

Transaction of business before the city commission last evening required but a very few minutes. Commissioners F. G. Dimick and Cal G. Tyler were absent when the roll was called, Mayor Slothover, and Commissioners Lenox and Vaile composing the majority council membership. City Clerk Blake G. Grover, who had been confined to his home for several days, was present at the session. Estimates from the federal PWA fund provided for the construction of the sewage disposal system and extension to the city sewer system were ordered paid as follows: Rocho Construction Company of Freeport, $12,795.34; Stark Building Company of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, $8,084.65, and the Wells Engineering Company of Geneva, $622.03. ### Arcola Ravaged By Worst Blaze City's History Arcola, Ill., May 16.—(AP)—What officials said was the worst fire in the history of this town of 1,600 persons broke out at 3 A. M. today, destroyed the P. J. Goggin lumber yard, the Johnson filling station, the Douglas County oil station and was still burning at 11 o'clock.

The scene of the blaze was the center of the city's business section—the intersection of state route No. 45 and Main street. Owners said they had but little insurance on the three properties, and the loss was estimated at from $60,000 to $100,000.

Dean Zeigler, 20, sleeping in the second story of the lumber company's office, was forced to jump from a window to escape the flames.

Cook County GOP Raps Gov. Horner

Chicago, May 16.—(AP)—First gunfire of the fall political campaign echoed in Illinois today as the Cook county Republican committee charged Gov. Henry Horner with taking a tardy interest in permanent registration.

A resolution adopted by the committee late yesterday endorsed the system, claimed that all credit for the movement belonged to the Republican party, and added:

"It was not until Gov. Horner became a candidate for re-election and found himself bereft of the support of the powerful Nash-Kelley machine, with its retinue of 'floaters' and 'stringers' and 'repeaters' that candidate Horner suddenly became converted and a champion of honest elections."

Eckert, Jr., at Freeport yesterday afternoon.

George Amburst of near Bishop, Ill., furnished bond for his release while Ignatz Vidic of Pekin was lodged in the Stephenson county jail in Freeport in default of bond. Both were arraigned on federal warrants charging them with interfering with an interstate shipment.

A similar federal charge against Lester Roof, Bishop, Ill., farmer, was dismissed but he was required to post $1,000 bond for his appearance later as a material witness in the case. Frank Donaldson of Peoria, the fourth person arrested in the hi-jacking and kidnaping, was sentenced to a federal prison term at Fort Leavenworth, Kas., recently in the federal court at Peoria, where he was at liberty under $15,000 bonds, for automobile theft.

LAWYER SOUGHT IN SMITH CASE GIVES SELF UP

Detective Accused by Son of Ex-Governor Denies Charges

New York, May 16.—(AP)—A. Henry Ross, Brooklyn lawyer, jointly indicted with Max D. Krone, a private detective, after Alfred E. Smith, Jr., signed a complaint charging extortion, surrendered today at the office of Assistant District Attorney John J. Sullivan.

Smith, son of the former governor, said he was forced to pay out $12,900 after he had been threatened with exposure because he accompanied a young woman to a West 23rd street hotel in 1933.

Ross was taken to the Elizabeth street police station for booking. Krone is being held in the Tombs prison. He was also named in a separate indictment.

Detective Denies Charge. Both Smith and the woman, Catherine Marie Pavlick, testified before the grand jury. Smith, a lawyer, has been estranged from his wife since 1932.

Krone was placed in the lineup at police headquarters and briefly questioned by Deputy Inspector Daniel Curlyne. Asked if the charges of extortion were true, he replied:

"The criminal allegations are not true."

He said he has been a private investigator for 15 years, and knew Smith and the young woman. He was silent when asked if he had had "any business dealings with the lady." He said he had never been arrested before.

Dixon Veteran is Given Decorations

George J. Papadakis of this city is the proud but modest possessor of two beautiful French decorations of the World War which he has received during the past few days, accompanied with certificates of honor and beautiful bronze and solid silver medals.

The first to be received a few days ago was for his participation in the battle of Chateau Thierry on July 18, 1918. The solid silver medal suspended on a blue ribbon was accompanied with a large beautifully engraved certificate of honor, all in French with the exception of his name and unit. The second in a solid bronze medal on a colored ribbon inscribed in commemoration of the Verdun-Meuse-Argonne conflict in the same year, in both of which Mr. Papadakis served as a member of the 39th Infantry of the Fourth division.

Sewer Tile Laid as Far as Trench is Excavated Along River

Steam shovels and cranes are being employed to excavate a ditch along River street where the main line of tile for the connecting line to the sewage disposal plant is being laid.

Tons of earth have been removed from the ditch which will be cut along the river to the plant. Tile has been laid as far east as Hennepin avenue. Instead of the sewage being dumped directly into Rock river, the new mains will receive it from the tributary mains and it will be piped to the sewage disposal plant, where it will be purified before the residue is finally released into the river.

Formen estimated this morning it would take several days to complete the ditch. The tile is being laid as fast as the ditch is being excavated.

Impeached Federal Judge Refuses to Vacate His Office

Miami, Fla., May 16.—(AP)—Former Federal Judge Halsted L. Ritter remained at home today and postponed possible eviction from his offices by the custodian of the federal building.

At home the jurist, who was ousted by the United States senate in impeachment proceedings, studied law books from which he hoped to obtain opinions that would allow him to retain his place on the bench.

In these volumes, he hoped to find weapons for attacking legality of his ouster by the United States senate last April 18 after his conviction by a one-vote margin on charges of bringing his court "into scandal and disrepute."

Ritter refused to vacate his chambers at the request of Postmaster William C. Hill and at the same time announced he soon would file proceedings in the Federal Court of Claims questioning constitutionality of his senate impeachment and demanding payment of salary since his removal.

Reported Shortage Farm Labor Denied

Chicago, May 16.—(AP)—Chas. E. Miner, deputy administrator of the Illinois works progress administration, said today investigation had convinced him reported shortages of farm labor in this state were not correct.

The national re-employment service and the Illinois state employment service, he said, had large numbers of competent farm hands on their registers in every county. Farm labor shortages had been reported by several agricultural organizations, which blamed the WPA.

"We have tried to anticipate the demand for farm labor by reducing WPA quotas in those counties where help was needed," Miner said, "but we will not allow WPA to be used as a club to make our workers take individual jobs."

Stubborn Drivers Shamed by Police

Washington, May 16.—(AP)—Policeman Ernest Fillmore today offered a couple of nominees for the stubborn-behavior championship.

At 8 A. M. two motorists arrived simultaneously before a parking space which was only big enough to hold one car. They glared at each other, turned off their engines and refused to budge, determined to wait on one another.

At noon they were still at their steering wheels.

'NEW DILLINGER' MOB ROBBED OF STOLEN JEWELS

Held Up in Chicago Flat While Dickering Over Loot

Chicago, May 16.—(AP)—A prisoner's account of how a band of robbers was robbed—in turn—by a band of robbers today led to new efforts to round up the uncaptured members of both mobs.

The prisoner was James Dahlger, 27, of Indianapolis. He told Capt. John Stege yesterday he and his confederates in the "New Dillinger" gang were robbed of $51,000 in stolen jewels by a group of Chicago holdups last April 12.

Stege said Dahlger related that he and the gang leader, Alfred Brady, met a man named Jack Venetucci, alias Ryan, who offered to introduce them to a "fence" willing to pay a fair price for the loot taken in a Dayton, O. holdup.

"So we went with him to a flat," Dahlger was quoted. "We met a man there named Frank Scardina. While we were dickering in came about eight other fellows with guns—me and Barton (Brady) and Lee Jackson—and they held us there while Scardina and Ryan ran away with the stuff. They even took Barton's pistol."

Previously, officials had recovered $60,000 worth of jewelry which the "New Dillinger" gang—so-called because they followed the slain public enemy's trail in Indiana, Ohio and Illinois—obtained in robberies in Dayton, Lima and Greenville, O.

Brady, also known as John A. Barton, was held at Indianapolis on charges of slaying Police Sergeant Richard Rivers. Stege said Dahlger "admitted being with the gang" when Rivers was shot.

IL DUCE SENDS

BEST WISHES TO

AUSTRIAN HEAD

Hints Continuation Of

Austro-Italian

Agreements

Rome, May 16—(AP)—Premier Mussolini extended "best wishes" to the new Austrian dictator today while a deposed vice-chancellor of Austria sought support from official Rome.

The Italian dictator sent a telegram to Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg as Prince Ernst von Starhemberg, Austrian vice-chancellor deposed in a cabinet shakeup, was reported soliciting Mussolini's support.

Il Duce assured the chancellor that Italy-Austro-Hungarian agreements recently renewed at Rome would remain an important factor in the Fascist program.

"The greetings which your excellency sent me on assuming direction of the government formed by you have been very welcome to me," Mussolini said.

"In thanking your excellency I desire to confirm to you my definitely friendly sentiments in formulating sincere best wishes for the continuance and success of your, assuring youth faithfulness to the protocols of Rome reaffirmed by your excellency remains one of the cornerstones of the policy of Fascist Italy."

Italian circles declared Starhemberg, who ostensibly came to Rome to see a football game after his falling out with Schuschnigg, would not be likely to win assistance from the Italian dictator.

The support he seeks, these sources said, has already been lost to him.

Methodists To Study Economic

Social Problem

Columbus, O., May 16—(AP)—Methodism adopted today a "middle of the road" policy on social and economic questions.

Delegates to the 32nd quadrennial convention of the Methodist Episcopal church approved a report which met the demands of neither the liberals nor conservatives in the church.

Frank A. Horn of Brooklyn, leader of a liberal group of laymen, termed the report "the peace pact of Methodism."

A portion of the report, prepared by the committee on state of the church, said "we believe it better to have a united church studying social and economic questions than a divided church fighting about them."

The Methodist federation of social service had urged that the church take some stand on "profit seeking economy" and approve establishment of a "planned economy."

A conservative faction argued that the church should not interest itself to such an extent in these matters.

Worry for Safety

of 60 Missionaries

in Ethiopia

Addis Ababa, May 16—(AP)—Increasing worry was felt today for the safety of 60 missionaries from the United States who live in the south and southwest Ethiopia.

Authorities said they had heard nothing from them since the occupation of Addis Ababa by the Italian army.

There was no information that any harm had been done them but increasing animosity by Ethiopians against all whites has been noted recently.

Maj. Norman E. Fiske of the United States Army, military observer with the Italian expedition, arrived in Addis Ababa today.

COMPROMISE IS ARRIVED AT ON REVENUE PLAN

Would Boost Income Taxes Of All Now Paying Them

By NATHAN ROBERTSON

Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, May 16—(AP)—A compromise revenue plan, including a boost in the levy on all persons who pay income taxes, moved today toward a vote in the Senate finance committee.

The new program, in which President Roosevelt's proposal for taxing undistributed corporate profits would be a comparatively minor feature, was evolved in a surprise move yesterday. Some members felt the committee would adopt it in substance today.

The normal tax on individual incomes would be increased by one-fourth, boosting the levy from the present 4 per cent to 5 per cent. The plan also would levy a flat tax of 18 per cent on all income of corporations, a surtax of 7 per cent on undistributed corporate profits, and apply the normal income rate of 5 per cent to dividends.

The income tax boost would affect a large number of persons, perhaps more than 2,000,000, and there was uncertainty about its fate in Congress, especially in the House where all seats are at stake in this year's election.

The compromise program was described by Chairman Harrison (D-Miss.) as a "composite" of several members' suggestions and was put forward in an effort to get an agreement from his badly divided committee. But its approval depended upon treasury estimates of the revenue it would produce and a test of strength within the committee over the theory of taxing undistributed profits.

Some administration Senators felt the seven per cent surtax on undistributed profits was not high enough to force distribution of earnings held in corporations to avoid taxes. On the other hand several committee members favored complete abandonment of the proposal for taxing undistributed corporate earnings.

The seven per cent surtax plan was much different from President Roosevelt's original suggestion for taxing undistributed profits and the plan as a whole was a complete revision of the form in which the tax bill passed the House.

EVERYDAY LIVING

THREE RICH MEN

By Joseph Fort Newton

"LET'S talk about money," a reader suggests; "not that we have any, but just to show up the sham of those who say it does not matter. A lot of kint is talked about money by all of us."

"Often we hear that money does not create happiness—even you have said so—but you can bet that the people who say that have never slept on a park bench, as some of the rest of us have done."

"Frankly, I hate humbug, and I do not believe it is a sin to want money. Money in itself is nothing, but it symbolizes much, comfort, culture, travel, and many good things. These things I honestly want."

"What do you want? Do you want a roof over your head, clothes on your body, and food in your stomach? Then you want money. It may be that you want more—so do I—then you want more money."

With all of which all of us will agree; but it is still true that money does not bring happiness. During my life I have had three rich friends, three good men each one worth many millions."

They were very kind to me, and would have been kinder if I had allowed them to be so. They were very unlike, but each in his own way a truly noble, able, and useful man—I knew them intimately."

If it were proper, I should like to write a book about those three men; they deserve it. Of the three, one was radiantly happy—he would have been happy in any case; his wealth did not do it."

One was very unhappy, in spite of his wealth; he would have been unhappy under any conditions. To him life was a burden, almost a blight, but mostly a ghastly joke. That was his temperament."

The third was made unhappy by his wealth. He himself stood up to it, having had a stern upbringing; but his two children were ruined by money. Both went to their graves before he did—his wife soon followed—leaving him a poor broken old man, with nothing but money."

Yes, money has its value and it means power and opportunity; but there are many things it cannot buy. Is it not so? (Copyright, 1936, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

Mother, Daughter Banquet Was an Enjoyable Event

The Mother and Daughter banquet sponsored by the Truth Seekers class of Bethel church was held Thursday evening at the church.

One hundred and five mothers and daughters were present. The decorations were beautiful; the class colors of blue and gold, and white, were carried out in the entire decorations. Lovely spring flowers and daintily fashioned nut cups adorned each table. As the mothers and daughters marched down stairs to the dining room a group of the intermediate class girls sang sweetly a son of "Welcome."

After everyone had partaken of the appetizing dinner, the president of the class, Mrs. Kathryn Walker, introduced Mrs. Dora Hess, who very ably served as toastmistress. She made a brief talk, stressing the importance of such gatherings and mentioned that some of the mothers had come a great distance to be present.

Mrs. Ethel Zigler teacher of the class read a poem of Roddeaver's entitled, "I Love Mothers." Mrs. C. E. Hill gave the "Toast to Our Daughters," and Mrs. Marie Haggard gave the "Toast to Our Mothers."

Mrs. Homer Senneff gave a very interesting talk to our younger daughters where she likened them to the buds of a flower. "A Toast to Our Mothers in Song" was given by a group of seven of the daughters. An answer was given, "A Toast to Our Daughters in Song" by the senior ladies' class, which everyone enjoyed.

Several speeches were given by different ones present. Reading "Lost Child," by Mrs. Gladys Gordon.

Pantomime, "Mother of Men," Reader, Rev. Paul Gordon.

Song, "God Be With You," by all.

The delightful event was brought to a close with prayer by Miss Minnie Zigler.

Miss Dement Will Talk at Art Exhibit Sunday at High Schl.

The exhibit of paintings sponsored by the Phidian Art club will open Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock on the third floor of the high school building, instead of at the Illini hall at Grand Detour as first announced, and will continue through Wednesday, May 20. With the exception of Sunday, the pictures may be seen from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M., each day. A fine display of pictures by Rock river artists, not previously shown, will be hung.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock Miss Lucia Dement, who was art instructor at Columbia University, will give a talk on art in the lecture room adjoining the gallery.

Dixon and vicinity, being noted for its beauties and artists colonies, and having so many in its territory who are keenly interested in painting and paintings, the Phidian Art club cordially invites the public to attend this exhibit.

Mrs. A. G. Suechting Happily Surprised

The 12 choir girls of the Emmanuel Lutheran church who were to meet for their regular choir rehearsal last evening, met an hour earlier and in a body walked into the parsonage singing, "Happy Birthday to You," and happily surprised Mrs. Suechting. Each girl carried a large package of something good to eat, and instead of grouping about the piano to sing they hurried into the kitchen and soon displayed a very sumptuous picnic supper. After all had enjoyed the hearty meal, Mrs. Suechting was presented with a beautiful silk purse from the girls. The remainder of the evening was spent in singing. Mrs. Suechting will celebrate her birthday Sunday May 17th.

St. Mary's P. T. A. Largely Attended

St. Mary's P. T. A. had an attendance of 96 members and friends at its meeting Thursday evening, at which Dr. Elizabeth Ball, pediatrician, division of child hygiene in the state department of health, gave a very interesting lecture on health in general, which was appreciated greatly. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the hostesses, Mrs. James Valle and Mrs. George Richards.

Candle Lighting Service N.W. Alumni

The annual Candle Lighting Service for Northwestern Alumni was held Wednesday evening at the Hotel Dixon, and was attended by more than forty of the alumni.

Dr. G. J. Pohly, president of the district association, presided. Rev. Ray Bond, pastor of the Broadway Methodist church of Sterling, was chosen as president for the coming year. Present from Sterling at the banquet were Jacob J. Ludens, Miss Dorothy Ludens, Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Pohly, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Akey and Dr. A. L. Johnson.

Rev. Ray Bond was the speaker of the evening, taking for his subject, "Democracy Challenges Education." Rev. Bond expressed regret that more people do not show their interest in the democracy of our government. He declared that unless more people think about the issues of the day, and demand the continuance of free speech and free thought on the controversial subjects, that this country would drift away from democracy, and be controlled by a small group or a dictator. The issues today are more complex, and voters conspicuously show their indifference to them. This attitude endangers democracy. Rev. Bond declared.

Successful Concert At Sterling High School Last Night

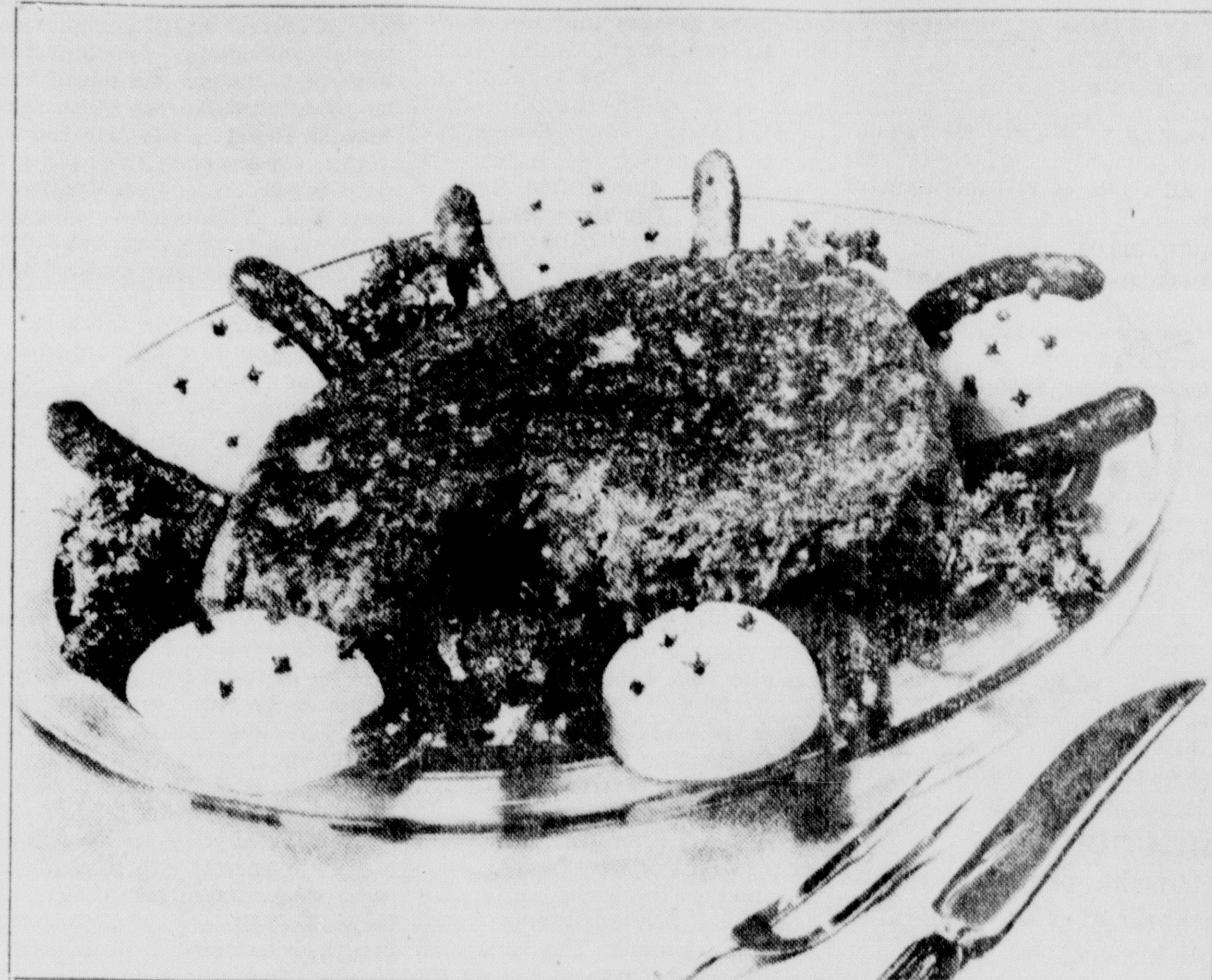

The May Musicale held at the Sterling Township High School last evening was a most enjoyable and successful affair. The Glee Clubs and mixed choruses under the direction of Mr. Honens, and the high school orchestra and high school band under the direction of K. M. Bailey, gave delightful numbers.

Mr. Eades, the principal of the school, in making a few remarks before the concert stated that the band was only one year old, but said they had worked diligently. The musicianship and poise attained by these young musicians, who looked so trim and professional in their uniforms of blue and gold, can be envied by members of older bands. The class of music which they play is of unusually high class for high schools, both for the orchestra and band. The band was unusually happy in "The Pirates of Penzance," by Sullivan, and "Steppin' Out," by Jody. Mr. Bailey may be justly proud of his band.

LADIES OF G. A. R. TO MEET MONDAY EVENING
The Ladies of the G. A. R. will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in G. A. R. hall.

An Economical Party Dish

BARGAIN CUTS MAY BE BROILED SUCCESSFULLY

It is surely nice to know that you can have that delicious flavor peculiar to broiled meats as often as you like, even if your food budget calls for the purchase of the economical, less demanded cuts of meat. Have your meat retailer grind these cuts. Then with a bit of clever manipulation in the formation of the ground meat, you may think you're broiling a fancy T-bone steak.

The grinding breaks up the connective tissue in these less tender cuts and makes it possible to cook them successfully by the broiling method. The only thing you need to worry about is the preparing of the meat so that it will stay together and make an attractive appearing final product. There are several simple ways, however, to accomplish this. Seasoning the meat and forming it into small patties each of which is wrapped with a slice of bacon and fastened with a toothpick seems the most common way. If you want to be even more certain of the shape of the finished patties, you can knead the meat a little before forming it into shapes. Kneading will have a tendency to develop a natural cohesion in the meat itself. This may still not be enough so some women take further precautions and add a slightly beaten egg, some catsup or perhaps some well seasoned leftover gravy.

Steaks, Chops of Ground Meat.
It is really fun to form these ground meat mixtures into shapes of chops or steaks and broil them in that manner. It is necessary to take particular care, though, when you turn them so that the steak doesn't lose the "tenderloin section" or the chop break in two! The planked ground beef recipe gives you an idea for a royal way to serve broiled ground meat and the lamb patty recipe is an example of broiling a meat which has been previously cooked.

The seasonings can be varied to suit the likes of your family, but the method of broiling should not be changed. Placing the meat in a hot broiling oven, three inches away from the flame, and allowing it to broil until well browned on one side, then turning the meat and allowing it to finish browning on the other side has proven the easiest method of broiling and also the method which produces the most juicy and palatable product. When the budget shows no loopholes and the family is hard to please try some broiled ground meat. It will prove itself well worth your while.

Planked Ground Beef.
Mix 2 pounds of ground beef with a little chopped suet, 2 tablespoons of chopped green pepper, 1/2 cup of catsup, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard and 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce. Arrange the meat into a flat oval cake and place in the center of a buttered plank. Place in a preheated oven so that there is a distance of about three inches between the top of the steak and the element of flame. When the steak is nicely browned on one side, turn. Surround steak with little sausages and peach halves in which cloves are inserted. Return plank to the oven until meat and peach halves are brown and sausages are done. Serve at once.

Broiled Ground Beef with Pineapple.
1 pound ground beef
6 slices pineapple
3 tablespoons butter
1-8 teaspoon celery salt
Flour
Salt and pepper
Season the ground beef with salt, pepper and celery salt, and form into cakes about 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Place in a broiler with the rack about 3 inches from the broiler flame. Broil for about ten minutes.
Dip the slices of pineapple into flour and brown in butter until a golden brown. Arrange on a platter putting a meat cake on each slice of pineapple.

Lamb Patties.
1 pound chopped shoulder lamb
2 tablespoons grated onion
6 slices of bacon
1-8 teaspoon paprika
Salt
Pepper
Add salt, pepper, paprika, and onion to chopped meat. Mix well oven until meat and peach halves are brown and sausages are done. Serve at once.

Broiled Ground Beef with Pineapple.
1 pound ground beef
6 slices pineapple
3 tablespoons butter
1-8 teaspoon celery salt

Salt and pepper
Season the ground beef with salt, pepper and celery salt, and form into cakes about 2 1/2 inches in diameter. Place in a broiler with the rack about 3 inches from the broiler flame. Broil for about ten minutes.
Dip the slices of pineapple into flour and brown in butter until a golden brown. Arrange on a platter putting a meat cake on each slice of pineapple.

Lamb Patties.

Mrs. John Ralston Honored at Girl Scout Convention

Chicago, May 16.—(AP)—Roy Sorenson, national council member of the Y. M. C. A., in Chicago, admonished Girl Scout leaders at their regional conference today to "plan constructively" with schools, churches, other youth agencies and social agencies in developing a "more adequate, healthier, happier, more social and better poised young people."

The Girl Scouts, he said, are thrown into relationship with other character building agencies and public agencies by the rise of co-operative planning and financing.

Delegates chose Detroit for the 1937 Great Lakes regional conference, which includes Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Leaders of this regional committee, which organized the first system of Girl Scout camps grading in America, were awarded Girl Scout ties. They were Mrs. Charles P. ## A SACRED DEDICATION

"I, for one, am dedicated to the proposition that henceforth no American citizen shall ever again be put in a position where he has to sell his vote for bread."

May not we all make this sacred dedication, set forth so timely by Governor Landon.

It was the conclusion of an interview on public matters, and was in answer to the interviewer, who said: "From what you have previously said, Governor, I imagine you feel that there should be an overhauling of the relief setup."

Two paragraphs make up the conclusion, as follows: "And here let me say again, that all this continuous experimenting and piling up of one uncertainty on to another keeps business upset and holds back undertakings that would bring more jobs. For more jobs is the only real solution to the relief problems—jobs that will allow people to keep their self-respect and plan for their own and children's future. There is no future on the relief roll."

"I believe that people would still like to plan for themselves. To me the most deplorable thing about the present relief set up is the way in which it has been made a matter of wretched party politics. In my opinion, relief is not a political matter at all. It is a matter of fundamental Christianity, and let me say here and now, that I, for one, am dedicated to the proposition that henceforth no American citizen shall ever again be put in a position where he has to sell his vote for bread."

The charge that citizens are compelled to sell their votes for bread has been brought in from all directions. Southern Illinois was one of the bad spots. At Johnston City the judges opened a ballot from the democratic primary ballot box, and read, "You can drive a horse to water, but you can not make him drink." Other ballots were found to be blanks, voted by men whose bread depended upon them casting ballots as democrats, which they were not.

Let Senator Holt of West Virginia tell the story of political degradation in his own way. He is the young man who had to wait around, after election, until he was 30 years old and could qualify for a United States senatorship. He was a New Dealer to an extreme. He believed in what he thought was high purpose in the New Dealers. Last week Senator Holt declared:

"WPA employees have been informed in the Fairmount district, Senator Neely's pride, that if they do not go to the polls and work on Tuesday, the election day, they need not report for duty on Wednesday . . . .

"If Harry Hopkins wants to see a real political machine in action, let him send men to check Neely's own steam roller that is crushing the hungry and defenseless women and children of West Virginia."

This scandal has grown to such proportions that it is worthy of a national crusade by men "dedicated to the proposition that henceforth no American citizen shall ever again be put in a position where he had to sell his vote for bread."

THE FARMER PAYS

An additional 40 millions of dollars is asked for the postoffice department in its regular annual appropriation, the need attributed mainly to the 40-hour week that has been established in the department.

This 40-hour week is just one of those things. It dovetails with the philosophy prevalent at Washington that the cost of everything shall be increased to bring about prosperity.

Nobody has contended that there was anything inhuman about postal employees working the same hours other persons work. It was not even a movement on the part of the postal employees. Since their post-war readjustments to bring them into accord with the general high costs that followed the upheaval, they had been satisfied with their situations, in which civil service and retirement pay made them secure as one can be. The 40-hour-week was thrust upon them.

Now the country has the system fastened upon it, with an additional cost. These innovations that originate in one department soon are spread throughout the entire federal system. Then they spread to the states. Who bears the additional cost?

Theoretically, the whole country bears it. Practically, the cost falls first on one level and then on another. It is passed from one to another, until it can not be passed any farther.

The persons who can not pass on their costs are the persons engaged in primary products. Mainly these are the farmers.

Slowly the pyramid is spread at its base and is raised to greater heights. President Roosevelt says he still clings to the NRA principles, which rapidly were taking away from the farmers the benefits that were contemplated in their behalf by the AAA, when NRA was dismantled by the court.

The president still is pressing upon industry to shorten hours without shortening pay.

Any farmer ought to be able to understand that such procedure means that costs will be increased, and he ought, by this time, to understand that these costs are all passed on by every one who can pass them on, but that the farmer can not. He has to dig his out of the soil.

But what are the farm leaders in Washington doing about it? Are they just trading the farmer off?

Interesting and Almost Forgotten History of East Grove and May Townships is Recalled

Lee county is always known to have been rich in historic material, some of which has been recorded and much of which is almost forgotten as to sites and individuals who are capable of recalling events. "The Banditti of the Prairies" records much of the historic which pertains almost entirely to gangsterism of a day before machine guns rattled and G-men hunted down the No. 1 public enemies. But today, there are many historic spots in Lee county which abound in interesting events and personalities. Especially, is this true of the section of Lee county lying south and west of Amboy.

With the passing of each year, those familiar with locations and personalities which would provide material for a most interesting history, are passing on and only legends and stories are to be heard of desperadoes, their hideouts and pastimes; settlements now unmarked and spots which have a keen historic interest of which no records has ever been kept.

N. Carter Williams

Few there are today, even in the neighborhood in which he lived and was feared, who recall N. Carter Williams. No less a number could locate the crumbling monument, purchased at great expense, which once marked the burial spot of Williams, his favorite racing horses and hunting dogs. The burial plot on the brow of a sand hill on the land once owned by Williams, was neatly fenced and a thriving grove of trees surrounded the place, in the center of which was erected the expensive monument.

On one of the faces of the granite shaft is this carved inscription: "N. C. Williams, died Nov. 8, 1879, aged 58 years, eight months and 29 days."

Williams came to Lee county, supposedly from Louisiana or some other southern state, and settled on an entire section of land located in the extreme northeast corner of East Grove township. With him he brought horses and dogs and proceeded to have a log house erected for his personal use and other log huts for caretakers and trainers, who looked after his horses and dogs. To the few older settlers of that section who recall Williams in the early boyhood, he was a commanding and much feared person, eager for gambling and generally considered quite wealthy.

Dixonite Recalls Him

James Buckley of this city, formerly supervisor of May township for a number of years, has a clear recollection of Carter Williams and has played cards with him in his log shack. After establishing himself, Williams proceeded to construct a mile long rye track, running the entire length of his farm and without a turn in it. This race course can today be seen, level as a floor and protected on both sides by natural banks. Old timers recall that three or four times a year Williams would hold horse races on this course and some of these few remember throngs of 500 men from all sections of that part of the country gathering for these events.

Williams brought to Lee county, from Kentucky, his own jockey, "Bud" Fowler, who rode his favorite racing stock. That particular section of Lee county abounded in wild game at that time and Williams bred and raised dogs for hunting, in the later years of his residence at that location, as his favorite horses or dogs died, they were taken to the knoll burial ground and placed in a grave. Legend has it that Williams selected the site on top of a high sand knoll commanding a view of the entire countryside, where he directed that the burial ground be maintained. His choicest fast horse and hunting dog are buried, one on each side of him, the old settlers tell today.

Erected Monument

In the center of this plot, Williams ordered and directed the erection of the monument, which is now crumbling. A wide hewn stone sets on a rock base and on this rests the white granite monument in sections. Originally it was a work of art of the marble cutter of that day. A square shaft bears the one simple inscription denoting the death of Williams. On top of this was set a fancy flat cap which supported a round shaft four feet in height. On top of this was another fancy cap which supported a large round ball. This could be seen for many miles at one time, but today the fences which once enclosed the burial plot, all of the trees and shrubs are gone, only the base of the white granite shaft remaining.

Williams would be absent from his East Grove rendezvous for weeks at a time and would suddenly return to Amboy to be met by some of his associates and taken to his ranch. On these occasions, those who knew him best say, he brought large sums of money. He was possessed of a weakness for cruises, it is said, and often travelled miles to be with a circus where it is reported that he was an adept at three card Monte of the "pea" game, and conducted these operations largely during his stay.

Daughter to Dixon

Williams had a daughter, Annie Williams, who years after his death moved to Dixon and resided for some time. After his death his corps of hostlers and followers gradually departed from that section of East Grove township and the land fell into other hands. Williams made an expedition into Arkansas, the older residents of that section recall, and is supposedly to have been dismembered and garroted by members of a bandit gang during the progress of a gambling game. His body was sent back to Amboy where it was viewed by many before being taken to his ranch and buried on top of the sandy knoll with his favorite horses and hounds. Legend has it that the guns which Williams carried were buried with him and at his request. The true facts of how he came to his sudden and tragic end were never known in the neighborhood of his home.

Sandy Hill Mission

At a time when there was no Catholic parish or church erected between the Illinois and the Mississippi rivers in northwest Illinois, a group of residents in the sparsely settled section now known as May township about eight miles southwest of Amboy, met at a home and organized a Catholic mission. St. Michael's mission was established in the year 1840 but it was not until seven years later that farmers assembled and erected a rough, one-room log structure, which became the first and original Sandy Hill church.

A small stucco chapel now sits on the same location where the log mission once provided a place of worship for many of the pioneer families of that locality. Prior to the erection of the log chapel, services were held at the home of William Dolan.

Cemetery Kept Up

Almost a hundred years later the Sandy Hill cemetery is still a well preserved institution. The burial ground which surrounds the picturesque chapel is today well maintained from a substantial fund which has been subscribed for this purpose. The chapel is equipped for the holding of funeral services only, where at one time entire families came for miles around to worship. In front of the property was a long row of hitching posts and each family was assigned one of these.

Head stones dating back to the late 1700's, recording birth dates are not uncommon in this burial ground. While the location is not as indicated by the name, Sandy Hill, yet many of the head stones have sunken below the surface of the ground and hundreds of graves have been forgotten and unmarked. Years ago bodies were brought long distances by wagon for interment in Sandy Hill cemetery.

In the small chapel which now stands are an altar and pews for the accommodation of only a small gathering of people. A memorial gives the date of the establishment of the parish and a water color painting gives a good view of the original log church built in 1847.

Mormon Burial Ground

Two miles directly south of Amboy is located the old Mormon cemetery. Many of the present day residents of that locality do not recall that years ago a thriving colony of Mormons occupied that section now known as Rockford, west of Amboy on the banks of Green river. Again, records of this flourishing group of early pioneers who came to that section before Amboy was a thriving center and before the location of the Illinois Central railroad, are missing.

Every accommodation of the settlement of those days existed at Rockford, older residents who recall the group assert. There was an inn, a dance hall, blacksmith shop and general store. Rough and rugged men went about when not at work, well armed and capable of exercising that art on any provocation. They were of the early Mormon faith and some of those settlers later developed into leaders of the church when it was established at Salt Lake City. They followed farming largely, during their residence at Rockford.

Now Bramble of Weeds

About two miles from this settlement was established the burial ground, which is now overrun by cattle and is a bramble of weeds, brush and old head stones. Prominent stones in the burial plot bear the names of Stone, Doan, Brown, Williams, Smith and Colwell. Some of the graves indicate care having been exercised for years and a few are now well mounded. Headstones, for the most part, have fallen and broken, but a few shafts remain standing to mark the resting place of hundreds of members of the Mormon colony. Dates on the monuments range from the late 1890's to about 1875 and in many places the ravages of cholera are in evidence where almost entire families have been wiped out within a short space of time.

But one burial plot in the entire cemetery is protected, and around this has been strung several barbed wires to prevent cattle and horses from trampling over the graves and breaking down the granite slabs which mark the graves. Some of the graves, still in a good state of preservation and well mounded, are marked by a plain piece of rock, native along Green river, at the head of the grave and a smaller piece at the foot.

Again, the lack of records such as are kept during the present time, has removed much of the interest in this historic spot where members of families of some of the early pioneers of the Mormon faith and officers later in the western church at Salt Lake City, are said to have resided.

READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE

The Tinies eyed their treasure and we Scouty said "Gee, this is grand, but I don't know what we can do with all this wondrous gold." "It's very pleasing to the eye, but there is naught we want to buy. Perhaps right back into the hill the large chest should be rolled."

"Oh, I know what we ought to do," another said. "We'll give it to our friend, the old prospector. He can use it, I am sure."

"Of course, he has a lot, right now but he will spend it all somehow. When his first batch is gone, he'll have this, and not be poor."

"Ah, for that plan I'm very strong. We cannot take the gold along with us when we are traveling," said Doty, with a smile.

"I'll bring my friend a lot of cheer. Let's give it to him now, right here." The old prospector raised his hand and said, "Now, wait a while."

"You never should do things in haste, 'cause thus good plans oft go to waste. A big surprise still is in store. Now, follow my advice."

"Somebody take a nugget out and find out what it's all about. You'll shortly find that it is smart to look things over twice."

Fair Goldy did as she was told. The moment that she grabbed a hold of one of the small pieces, she exclaimed, "Oh, what a thrill."

"I hope these nuggets will not spoil. They're candy, wrapped in in bright gold foil. This is our chance to eat and eat until we get our fill."

"You bet it is," the old man said. "This is my treat, so go ahead." Just then a funny turtle and a small black bear came near.

"Oh, aren't they cute! They, too, want some," said Doty. "They are not so dumb. Come on, we'll share our treat. There's lots for everybody here."

(The prospector plans to sail away in the next story.)

DAILY HEALTH

FRACTURE EMERGENCIES

A million persons are injured each year by automobile accidents along the highways of the nation. More than 4,000,000 suffer injuries in their homes and work places. Many of these injuries involve fractures of the long bones. It is estimated that 300,000 fractures of the extremities occur each year in this country.

In few conditions is first-aid treatment of greater importance. When a long bone has been broken the manner in which the injured person is handled largely determines the amount of pain he suffers, the length of hospital stay he will require, and in a measure, too, whether he will remain permanently disabled.

The Journal of the American Medical Association recently wrote:

"The emergency treatment of fractures of the long bones has become a problem of major importance. . . . The first attendant to practically all these injured persons naturally will be laymen untrained in the care of fractures. Their first thought will be to lift and carry the victim, with perhaps his broken extremity dangling, to some place more comfortable than the roadside.

"As regards the eventual result to fractured limbs, this is the worst thing that could be done. The immediate effects will be additional injury by the jagged bones to nerves, blood vessels and muscles. The broken bones may thus be forced through the skin, creating a compound fracture and tremendously increasing the risk of infection and danger to life. Injured persons with broken bones should first have a splint properly applied to the extremity before they are moved."

Police and firemen of New York and Philadelphia have received specific instructions not to move an injured person, where a fracture of the long bone is suspected, until the affected limb is splinted. Where medical help is not immediately available, it is wiser to make the injured person as comfortable as possible without moving him.

EDITORIAL

Bob Wasson
The ultimate end toward which man is seeking is to find himself in a state which to him is ideal and yet it does not interfere with the practical state of his neighbors. It is his idea to live the ideal as much as possible but to have it balance perfectly with the practical.

The relationship between the ideal and the practical may be most easily pictured as two weights on a board that is balanced over a fulcrum. One of the weights is compounded of all things as we would like to have them, operating as we would like to have them. This is called the ideal. The other weight is composed of the things as they are. This weight is called the practical.

It is man's earnest endeavor to place more weight on the practical end so that the fulcrum may be moved closer to the ideal and so more idealism enjoyed.

Track

Last Saturday four Franklin track men were entered in the district meet at Preport. Lady Luck seemed to be looking the other way when Franklin competed. Ralph was entered in the 100 and 220. In his first elimination heat of the hundred he won in 11, but the strain was too much for the injured tendon and it gave way in the finals of the 100. Ralph did his best but the body wasn't able to respond. At the close of the race he was given cheer by the audience for his effort. Dave was entered in the broad jump and high jump. While he didn't place in the broad jump, in the high jump he tied for 2nd with three other boys. In drawing for medals he got 4th place medal Dale Yocum, entered in the mile, ran one of his best races but competition was a little too strong. Albert Wendell in the 880 ran a fine race but didn't place. Dave and Albert are Juniors year and have fine chances in the events next year.

Ralph had the champion hard luck for his chances as state champion in the 100 were stilted. Last year he was one of the six finalists in the state and this year he might have won.

Chances are bright for winning the Green River Valley Meet next Monday. Six schools are entered with Paw Paw and Steward expected to make Franklin Grove run for their ribbons. Paw Paw is an unknown threat and Steward has a strong team of experience men. Though Ralph may not run, other Franklin Grove track men will do their best. Come out and see the meet. Its free and lots of Franklin supporters are wanted. You'll see a good meet with good races. Come to school Monday afternoon, May 18 for the Green River Valley Conference track meet.

G. A. A.

Last Thursday the girls tried their luck in track. Each girl tried the shot put, discus, broad jump and the dashes. This week it is hoped that the weather will be warm enough that they may try high jumping and pole vaulting. On May 21 the girls are to hold their scheduled track meet among themselves.

F. G. Team Wins

Last Thursday Steward came to Franklin Grove for their scheduled baseball game. The game was nip and tuck all the way through until in the last inning Clark Wasson socked the ball for a three-bagger thus winning the game. There were two home runs made, one by a boy from Steward and the other by Raymond Patterson, the catcher of our team. The final score was seven to six with Franklin being the winner. For once we won a game. Beans Snyder did some fine pitching and the players worked together excellently. It was the best game we've seen in a long time. Next Thursday, May 21, we play Creston there and we hope we can win again.

SUPERINTENDENT HANSON

TO LEAF RIVER

Superintendent L. T. Hanson has accepted a position as superintendent of the Leaf River Community High school. Mr. Hanson has been superintendent here for the past nine years and during this time the school has progressed in many ways toward a better position in educational standards.

"Prof." has given faithful service in the school and we appreciate his work. He has had a great part to do in the molding of the students who have been in school during those nine years and his influence has been great. Former students and students in the High School today hate to see him go. He has done a lot for the school and will continue to do it at Leaf River. We wish him the best of fortune in his new position.

Senior Play

The senior play is rounding into shape as all three acts are being polished up for the one and only performance to be given at the campgrounds May 22. Miss Schmidt expressed herself as being satisfied with the present progress of the play, although much remains to be done. "Hubert the Great" is polishing up his lines and preparing his costumes.

In the play "Hubert the Great" Remember, save a week from tonight for the purpose or seeing "Hubert the Great" presented by the cast of the senior class.

Junior-Senior Banquet
The Junior-Senior Banquet held in Dixon Hotel, May 8 was in the form of a world tour. Mr. Hanson was the Captain and gave the Captain's reception in his own saloon which was a private room in the basement. The speech was really a welcome to life for the young people. The Juniors planned the banquet in the form of a tour because the Senior's motto is "To-night we Launch, where shall we Anchor?" Each number on the program was to represent some country. Music and the prophecy and history all brought out the idea. Some very good jokes were gotten off by David Studebaker the toastmaster-skipper. The banquet is considered a success by all.

The Spector
It appears that some seniors are attempting to assassinate each other with rocks.

If you see a certain junior on a bicycle take care, or maybe it would be better to take to a tree. His last victim was a breadman.

One of the recent remarks of the editor was "Shucks, I don't see why they can't have 'Freshman-Senior Banquets'."

Was ye honorable spectator surprised to learn that the girls were going to try pole vaulting. They've got more nerve than he had. He always wound the pole around his neck first and then tried running (when it usually got tangled up in his legs). When the actual jump was made the legs went the wrong way and of course the stick fell off. Next process was falling thru the air with the greatest of ease only to land on tummy and have wind knocked out. Crown-jumping was pole falling over on head of prostrate victim. We live and learn! He learned and still lives! A very dangerous sport. There's lots of tape and gauze around school anyway.

It seems that some of the girls were rather stiff after the track meet last week. And they— to know what to do about it. Grin and bear it.

Mr. Cozzens: (In general Science) What causes heart failure? Dorothy Pyle: They fall in love I guess and get it broken.

Prof. seems to be enjoying his new Studebaker. He can't get over 45 from it the Huh.

"Buick's the Buy" (editorial note)

Bill Black is also sporting a Terraplane around. A nice new car does help for we observe him transporting a certain Freshman girl around. New cars certainly help! If you don't believe it ask him. (H'm! I don't need a new car)

Spring rains come at sudden times. Sometime people get wet in them.

We would like to know what would have happened if a Junior girls glasses had been broken again.

Mr. Fox. (In civics class) Dave, define capital and labor.

David Studebaker: If I loaned you $10 that would be capital, but if I tried to get it back that would be labor.

Orville Fess: (In lab.) Say, the gas is leaking in this tank.

Mr. Cozzens: Get some putty and plug it up. Use your head boy, use your head.

Darlene Buck's Papa: Haven't I told you never to enter my gate again?

Earl B. I didn't—I jumped over the fence.

Pat: (yawning) Well, what shall we do this evening.

Mary Jean: Let's think hard.

Pat: No, let's do something we both can do.

Miss Schmidt: What's a good example of wasted energy?

Dale Yocum: Telling a hair raising story to a baldheaded man.

Miss Lyford: It will soon be vacation time. I hope you all come back next year with more sense.

Class: The same to you.

(Apologies to Dixit)

Sixteen Received Diplomas.

The rural eighth grade graduation exercises were held Tuesday evening in the Methodist church. The class consisted of sixteen graduates. The class had chosen as their motto B2, which was placed in front of the audience. The decorations were in the class colors blue and gold which made a very lovely decorations. The church filled completely. Many were compelled to stand.

Mrs. W. L. Moore played the march to which the young people marched to their places on the platform. Rev. C. P. Blekking offered the invocation. Miss Marie Black accompanied by Miss Hunter rendered a violin number. The humorous reading by Gerald Emmert was especially good. A Boy's Trio from Lee Center accompanied by Miss Lee presented several songs. The address of the evening was given by Prof. B. J. Frazer of Dixon. Which was one of the best addresses given to the rural graduates. County Supt. L. W. Miller in a few well chosen words encouraged the young folks to continue on through the high school and if possible to college. Rev. C. P. Blekking gave a benediction. Obituary
Emory A. Buck
Emory A. Buck eldest son of the late Chilson and Mary (Riddies-barger) Buck was born in Franklin Grove, Illinois August 8, 1886 and died in the West Suburban Hospital at Oak Park, Illinois, May 12, 1936.

He, with his family, united with Mary L. Yingling January 22, 1892. They resided in Franklin Grove for about sixteen years when they moved to Rochelle. The following year his wife passed away. To this union were born two daughters, Myrtle and Hazel, who made a home for him until 1917 when he was united in marriage to Josephine Cross Murdock, of Oak Park, Ill.

He, with his family united with the Methodist church in Franklin Grove when J. R. Hamilton was pastor of the church, later joining the Rochelle Methodist church by letter. On moving to Oak Park he and his wife united with the first Methodist church of Oak Park where he remained a most worthy and faithful member until the time of his death.

When a young man in Franklin Grove he was associated with his father in the threshing business which took them to nearly all of the farm homes in this community. He was always a good clean upright young man, very accommodating and his friends in the town of his birth were legion. It was one of the great delights of his life to return each summer to the "Old Home Town" and greet his friends. He will be greatly missed by a large circle of relatives and by many friends.

He is survived by his wife, his two daughters, Myrtle Keith of Austin, Hazel Edwards of Webster Groves, Missouri, three grandchildren Frank Buck Keith, Mary Elizabeth Edwards, Betsy Josephine Edwards all of whom mourn a devoted husband, father and grandfather. He is also survived by one brother and three sisters, Dorsey Buck and Mrs. Nona Schultz of Rockford, and Mrs. Ada Underwood of Dixon who mourn the loss of a good kind brother.

Owing to illness of one of the daughters, Mrs. Hazel Edwards was unable to be present at his funeral. The remains were brought to this place Thursday morning and taken to the home of his sister Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schultz.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist church Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. O. D. Buck. Funeral hymns were sung by Rev. and Mrs. Paul Studebaker. Casket bearers were Joe Gilbert, H. H. Dysart, Fred Hansen, Ed. Dysart, Will Phillips and E. L. Lott.

It takes a lot of courage to keep on living on.

When those we love have passed away into the Great Beyond. And look beyond the darkness until we see the light.

He knows our very heartache, just what we have to bear. But what He wants from our hearts is the sacrifice of prayer.

We cannot read the meaning that was hid in His great plan. But if we hold out faithfully, some day we'll understand.

So may we have the courage, when those we loved are gone. To look beyond the darkness and keep on living on."

Those from a distance to attend the funeral were, Mrs. Emory Buck, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Keith and son Frank, Mrs. Inez Narum of Chicago; Mrs. Charles Clark of Rockford, Mrs. Ada Underwood and family of Dixon; Mrs. J. E. Fissel and daughter Miss Merle of Freeport; Mr. and Mrs. Emil Banaid of Compton, Mrs. Ed. Murdock of Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Will Ling, A. M. Zimmerman, and Mrs. T. E. Fouser of Rochelle, Mrs. Murdock, Oregon, Mrs. Fred Gates of the Kingdom, Mae Bennett, of Lighthouse, Mrs. Jennie Cross, Chana; Mr. and Mrs. John Mortimer, of Paw Paw; Mr. Rupert Farr Oak Park; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nice of Dixon.

No Opposition to Roosevelt Appears on Georgia Ticket

Atlanta, May 16.—(AP)—Georgia Democrats will cast their 24 votes for President Roosevelt in the Philadelphia national convention June 23.

Roosevelt was the only entry for the state presidential preferential primary at the registration deadline, 1 P. M. (Central Daylight time) today.

Hence the primary, arranged for June 3, will be called off. The president's $10,000 entry fee will be returned to friends who contributed it and Roosevelt will name the Georgia delegates.

The state Democratic executive committee made those provisions to apply if only one person entered the race.

Cookery News Notes Compiled By Lucile Harris

By Lucile Harris
GOOD BREAKFAST MEANS THE DAY IS WELL BEGUN

Between the hearty meal which is breakfast on the farm, and the hasty bite which breaks the fast of many a city dweller, there is a wide range of breakfast. More attention might well be given that repeat by the housewife who has her family's health in mind when she plans her meals. She has a chance to make sure that the day is rightly begun for them, whatever the hours which follow may bring forth. She can send each one to work or school or play, feeling fit to meet all the demands on physical and mental energy.

A little planning and perhaps a quarter of an hour earlier rising can make a world of difference in the way a day begun. Much of preparation for breakfast can be made the night before. The table may be set. Food may be all ready to prepare and serve.

Bacon Tempts Appetite

Appetites may need a bit of coaxing in the morning, and one of the best tempters is a bit of bacon. That may even tempt the sleepiest member of the household to forego those "forty winks" in favor of a real and nourishing morning meal.

Fruit has become a part of the American breakfast, and a combination such as bacon and pineapple proves a popular breakfast dish.

Bacon With Pineapple

12 slices of bacon
6 slices pineapple
Flour
Salt

Place a single layer of bacon in a coll frying pan. Place over a slow flame. Pour off the fat as it forms in order that the bacon may be dry and crisp. Remove to the center of a hot platter and keep hot. Season a little flour with salt and pepper. Dip the slices of pineapple in flour, covering both sides. Brown in very hot bacon fat and serve on the platter around the bacon slices.

Another way in which bacon may be used to give flavor to breakfast is in bacon muffins. Your family's delight in these muffins will well repay you for the little extra time and effort they require.

Bacon Muffins

3 tablespoons hot crisp bacon, diced
2 tablespoons bacon drippings
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
2 well-beaten eggs
1 cup milk
½ teaspoon salt

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar, then add well-beaten eggs, milk, hot bacon drippings and hot crisp bacon. Pour into buttered muffin tins and bake for twenty-five minutes in a hot oven (400° F.).

Even if there isn't time for special dishes on the week-day breakfast menu, isn't it nice to make Sunday morning a festive occasion for the family by giving a little extra thought and effort to breakfast? Sausages on Sunday morning start not only the day but the week in happy fashion.

Sunday Morning Sausages

12 link sausages
2 tablespoons flour
6 triangles toast
½ cups crushed pineapple

Fry the sausages until brown. Toast the triangles of bread. To 2 tablespoons of fat left in the pan after cooking the sausages add flour and brown. Then add the crushed pineapple, stirring constantly until it reaches the boiling point. Pour pineapple mixture over the toast and place 2 sausages on each triangle.

Here is a good way to turn leftover lamb into a delicious and easy-to-prepare hot breakfast dish.

Breakfast Lamb

2 cups cold cooked lamb
1 hard-cooked egg
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup milk
6 baking powder biscuits
Salt
Pepper

Combine butter and flour and add milk to make a cream sauce. Add finely minced hard-cooked egg. Serve on baking powder biscuits, split open and buttered.

For something really special in the way of breakfast dishes, I can recommend ham waffles. These, by the way make an excellent dish for a company breakfast, if you are one of those clever persons who like to invite your friends to a breakfast party, use a recipe for sour milk waffles.

Ham Waffles

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
1½ cups sour milk or buttermilk
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
¼ teaspoon soda
¼ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks, well beaten
½ cup melted butter
1 cup chopped cooked ham

Sift flour once, measure, add soda, baking powder, salt and sugar, and sift again. Combine egg yolks, milk and butter. Add to flour, beating until smooth. Fold in egg whites. Bake in hot waffle iron, sprinkling ½ cup uncooked ham, finely diced, over the batter of each waffle just before closing the iron. Bacon may be used instead of ham, if preferred. This recipe makes 4 four-section waffles.

DIPLOMATS GIVE STUDY TO JAPAN FORCE IN CHINA

Augmentation of Jap Troops Inside Wall Held Unwarranted

BULLETIN

Tientsin, China, May 16.—(AP)—Fresh contingents of Japanese troops streamed today into the enlarged Tientsin garrison.

Departing from their previous explanation that the reinforcements were necessary because of Communist activities in North China, Japanese militarists said their forces were being augmented to protect a large number of camp followers and other Japanese who have flocked in since the Japanese penetration into northern provinces.

Peiping, May 16.—(AP)—United States and other foreign diplomats began a study today of the serious situation arising from Japan's strengthening of its North China garrisons which caused the Nanking government to protest to Tokyo.

Diplomats pointed out the Boxer protocol, concluded after the Chinese uprising of 1900, permitted Japan and other signatories to bring in only protective forces.

Japan's present North China troop strength of nearly 10,000, diplomats emphasized, was sufficient to occupy strategic air fields, railroad stations and Great Wall passes.

In connection with a Japanese military attaché's statement that the reinforcements were required to protect an increasing number of Japanese residents in North China, foreign diplomats declared no danger existed.

The number of Japanese nationals here has been augmented only slightly in recent years.

Move Unwarranted

Diplomatic sources said no "incident" had occurred to warrant such a large force as was formed by the arrival yesterday of 7,600 additional Japanese troops.

The Boxer protocol allows only sufficient soldiers to protect embassies and consulates in Peiping and to guarantee safe passage of nations between Peiping, Tientsin and the sea.

Diplomats said the tripling of its North China garrison enabled Japan to strengthen its position on the Asian mainland by removing any necessity of drawing from the Manchoukuoan army in the event troops were needed inside the Great Wall.

Chinese sources insisted the reinforcements had a two-fold purpose:

1. To encircle North China with a view to ultimate occupation and subjugation by Japan.
2. To prepare for an eventual war with Soviet Russia, which Japan might regard not only as a menace to Manchoukuo but also to its own island empire from the air.

BORDER INCIDENT

Moscow, May 16.—(AP)—A new incident on the Manchoukuoan border, Soviet advisers said today, broke the quiet on the Far Eastern frontiers which Russia insisted on as a prerequisite to an investigation with Japan of boundary disputes.

An official Soviet news agency dispatch from Khabarovsk, Far Eastern Siberia, said a Soviet border patrol was subjected to fire Wednesday from the Manchoukuoan side of the frontier.

For more than a month previously, the border section had been calm while negotiations proceeded for a settlement of the Soviet-Japanese-Manchoukuoan frontier disagreements.

The Soviet dispatch said a squad of 25 soldiers, taking a position across the frontier from a Soviet five-man patrol near Novokisevsk, directed persistent fire against the Soviet patrol from a hilltop.

Japanese general headquarters at Hsinking, Manchoukuo, reported earlier its troops found Russian cavalrymen in Manchoukuoan territory and fired on them, driving them back into Siberia. Japan contends the boundary lines are vague.

The Soviet dispatch said the Russian patrol, desirous of avoiding a clash, did not return the Japanese fire. No casualties were mentioned.

Life Ins. Firms Can Not Sell Liability Insurance in State

Springfield, Ill., May 16.—(AP)—The attorney general's office today ruled that two large eastern life insurance companies have been illegally selling workmen's compensation and liability insurance in Illinois.

The opinion was requested by Ernest Palmer, director of insurance, who said his department would take steps to require the companies to cease the issuance of casualty insurance. Palmer refused to name the two companies.

The opinion held that life insurance companies cannot engage in the business of selling workmen's compensation or liability insurance in Illinois.

Quadruplets born to a Negro couple at Charleston, C., made a total of 19 children borne by the mother.

This city is to have the opportunity of witnessing the work of Howard H. White, specialist of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, whose business of disseminating new information on meat, takes him to all parts of the country. Mr. White will present a series of meat lecture-demonstrations during the week of the Foods on Parade Cooking School, appearing first at a retailers meeting which will be held just previous to the opening of the school. In addition to the retailer program he will hold meetings for homemakers, students, teachers and other groups, it is announced.

SUNDAY CIRCUS DAY FOR DIXON

Seils-Sterling Shows Give Two Performances in City

Tomorrow—Sunday—is circus day in Dixon. Circus days are happy days. Who can't remember the time when one visited the circus grounds with father, studied the elephants, watched the erection of the city of tents, and saw the bustle and hustle and came away with the realization that a big circus is really and truly a gigantic institution. Because it is one of the world's greatest lessons in efficiency.

Seils-Sterling circus is known as one of the biggest, best, and most modern circuses in the United States today, and is making its second appearance in this city as two performances are scheduled for Sunday afternoon and night.

Many Feature Acts

More features have been assembled for the 1936 exhibitions than during previous tours. Among the outstanding number is Fred Leonard, with his European horse act of military trained steeds who drill like soldiers, dance on their hind legs, and do an unusual novelty act. In fact these unusual animals have appeared in all the principal cities of Europe. The big sensation of the program, another European importation, is pretty, dainty Senorita Thressia Morella of Spain who performs thrilling aerial stunts in the dome of the big top including a daring forward head dive and somersault in mid-air from trapeze catching by her heels, the Riding Hodge Brothers, "Joe and Teddy" in marvelous side-splitting comedy stunts on handsome horses. They are assisted by Misses Verna Lindeman, Rose Heller and Nellie Schrader. The Peasley Trio, in an unusual novelty cannon ball juggling act; the Beckman Flyers, America's most sensational aerialists in a thrilling trapeze act in the top of the big tent in which Joe Seigrist makes a flying leap to a perfect catch by Orville Lindeman while blindfolded with a gunny sack over his head. Lindeman's famous elephants in military drills, they play baseball, and play musical instruments. Twenty funny clowns of all sizes appear in all manner of funny cartoon make-ups burlesquing all of the feature acts. Prof. Arthur Mac Heller's fine concert band plays a musical program of popular, classical, and novelty numbers. Gary Owen, Hollywood film star and cowboy with his wild west group of cowboys and cowgirls furnishes a real old fashioned wild west concert.

WAR DEBT ISSUE REVIVED IN LONDON SAYS PAPER

Herald Says Negotiations With U. S. Are to Start Soon

London, May 16.—(AP)—The long dormant war debts issue came to life anew today with reports that strong British leaders sought a settlement with the United States.

The question was revived here just a day after Leon Blum, France's Socialist leader and Premier-to-be, announced he would like to see the debt "misunderstanding" erased, with Paris indicating the first move was more likely to come from London.

In the background of renewed consideration of the problem left by the World War, informed sources said, rested possibility of gaining American assistance in any general economic reorganization to help avert danger of a new war.

While government and diplomatic officials scoffed at reports of a new move was afoot for settlement of war debts, the Daily Herald said an "influential group" of British politicians was urging a reopening of negotiations with the United States.

Authoritative sources said Britain had made no approach and had not indicated any approach to America on the debt question, with another installment due June 15.

No Payment Provided.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Neville Chamberlain provided no money for war debt payment in his new budget.

The Herald's report of a campaign for a debt settlement, without naming the personalities involved, said they were conservatives at present outside Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin's cabinet but likely to be included soon in the ministry.

Rumors have been current in political quarters of an imminent important cabinet shake-up.

The Herald said the non-cabinet Conservative leaders were pressing Baldwin and Chamberlain to undertake a debt settlement on the ground that it would facilitate American aid in any forthcoming world economic discussions.

Informed sources believed sentiment for a war debt settlement—involving a total debt of $13,670,087,391.28, on which all debtor nations except Finland have been in default—has developed also since Italy's triumph in Ethiopia.

PIMLICO, SEAT OF PREAKNESS, IS GAY TODAY

Granville, Memory Book After Bold Venture

Baltimore, May 16.—(AP)—The eyes of the racing world were focused on Pimlico today where Bold Venture defends his laurels, won in the Kentucky Derby, in the $25,000 Preakness.

There was no Brevity in the 46th running of the one and three-sixteenth miles test but four of the three-year olds, which trailed Bold Venture at Churchill Downs, were ready to take another crack at Morton L. Schwartz's ace along with a half-dozen others, which have shown their worth in competition and morning workouts.

Fourteen were named in the overnight entries but not more than ten or eleven were expected to parade at about 4 P. M. (CST).

Leading the beaten Derby delegation were Granville, William Woodward's son of Gallant Fox, which threw his rider at the start of the roughly ridden Derby, and Grand Slam from the Bomar stable. The Wheatley stable's Teufel, stablemate and conqueror of the stretch running Granville in the Wood Memorial, and Mrs. Silas B. Mason's He Did, winner of the Santa Anita Derby, completed the contingent.

Memory Book Aspires

At the head of the new aspirants for three-year-old honors stood Memory Book, star of Mrs. Payne Whitney's Greentree stable, Jean Bart, son of Man O'War from Walter M. Jeffords' barn and E. R. Bradley's Bow and Arrow, seeking to give his master his third victory in the classic.

Of the others, only Hal Price Headley's Hollywood, back where he won the Pimlico futurity last year, and Snark, another Wheatley colt which has not raced this year, were considered certain starters. Mrs. Marion Du Pont Somerville's Transporter, Mrs. W. W. Vaughan's Knight Warrior, Edward Bruner's Aneroide and Giant Killer, stablemate of Jean Bart, were not expected to accept the issue.

Although Bold Venture was the standard horse, the race figured to draw a crowd of more than 10,000 to the rambling grandstand in the outskirts of the city.

With the weather man promising fair weather and a fast racing strip, the record of 1:58 1-5, set by Hal Quest two years ago, was in danger.

Bold Venture's time of 2:03 3-5 at the Downs was the third fastest Derby ever run.

NOTED JOCKEY PLUNGES FROM WINDOW; DIES

New York, May 16.—(AP)—The career of Jockey Laverne Fator, one of America's outstanding turf stars, was ended today with death resulting from a serious illness and a two-story fall from the window of a hospital at Jamaica, Long Island.

Fator, who was 36, had been irrational from peritonitis following appendicitis, and yesterday, when his nurse returned to his room with a glass of water he had requested, she found him lying in a stone courtyard, 40 feet below the window. His skull was fractured.

At his side when he died last night were his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sande, Sande, noted jockey, formerly was one of Fator's turf companions.

Fator, who learned to ride on cow ponies at Haley, Idaho, came east about 18 years ago and within a short time had won for himself wide recognition as one of America's leading jockeys. By 1931, when he virtually retired from the saddle, he had won 1,121 races, and had brought many other mounts in to place and show.

His total winnings for his employers, including Ross and Ramocas stables, were estimated during his racing years at $2,408,720.

Sullivan Takes the Lead Among Hitters in Junior League

New York, May 16.—(AP)—Bill Terry of the New York Giants continued to lead the batsmen of both major leagues on the basis of games played through yesterday but the high average he maintained earlier in the season has been on the decline since he benched Sam Leslie and took his regular turn at the plate.

Terry leads the parade with a semi-official average of .480 while in second place is Billy Sullivan of the Indians who leads the American league with .457. Joe Medwick of the Cardinals, batting .402, is in third place in the National league and has the best average of any major leaguer who has played in 24 or more games.

Joe Dimaggio, the Yankee rookie, has come up into contention for the batting honors, his four hits in each of the Yankees' last two games having boosted his average to .420 and put him in second position in the American circuit.

Rock Islanders Favored To Take State Net Crown

Champaign, Ill., May 16.—(AP)—High school tennis stars decide the state championship today, with the Hainline brothers of Rock Island, Fred and Don, given good chances of taking some of the honors.

Don Hainline and Seymour Greenburg, of Lane Tech, Chicago, both seeded players, meet in one of the star semi-final singles matches. Fred Hainline meets Shirk of Bloomington in another duel. In the doubles, Stein and Barclay of Tilden Tech, Chicago, clash with Luckman and Hamm of Jacksonville, and the McConnell-Rodman team of New Trier matches strokes with Madigan and Gaffney of Lincoln.

The McConnell-Rodman doubles team was a slight favorite to take the doubles title.

Although there were as many as 500 Texas Rangers at one time, now there are only 75 regular rangers. Many persons, however have been appointed special rangers.

Fairy flies, or Myrmidae, are so small that five can walk abreast through a pinhole.

Shot Put, Hurdles Marks Collapse at Champaign

Champaign, Ill., May 16.—It was a case of close your eyes and take your pick today as the state prep track and field stars took over Memorial stadium at the University of Illinois to strive for championship laurels.

York of Elmhurst and New Trier of Winnetka, each with five men qualified for the finals, were slight favorites. However, four other schools, Rockford, the defending titleholder, Englewood of Chicago, Kankakee and Evanston promised to make strenuous bids.

York Aid Bob Monahan in both dashes, Phil Darmstadt in the 440 yard run, Don Cash in the javelin and Haines in the high jump. Cash threw the javelin 187 feet 10 inches in yesterday's trials, more than 13 feet farther than the second man, Walter Yasinski of Auburn.

Strength In Hurdles.
New Trier's strength was concentrated in the hurdles and 440 yard run. Dave Jones qualified in the high and low hurdles and Morton qualified in the low hurdles, with Conoley and Cowan in the quarter mile.

Bill Sharp, young giant from Grant high, Ingleside, assured the 42nd annual meet one record, while changes in the rules contributed two more. Sharp, 6 feet 3 inches tall, weighing 238 pounds, shaved the 12-pound shot 53 feet 1 inch, breaking the mark set last year by Tony Corso of Hillsboro, by one-half inch.

The use of high hurdles 38 inches high, instead of 42, and cutting the low hurdles distance from 220 yards to 200, produced new marks in both events. John Collinge of Maine Township had the fastest time in the highs, 14.7 seconds. Bill Mabin of LaGrange did 23.3 seconds in the lows. The changes were made to conform with new national federation of state high school athletic associations rules.

Finals were slated to start at 10 A. M. (CST) today.

TWO SMASHUPS MAR TRIALS OF AUTO DRIVERS

Indianapolis, May 16.—(AP)—America's cream of the race driving crop, undeterred by two crashes which threatened four lives, had the stream-lined "thunder buggies" in readiness today for qualification tests for the 500-mile grind May 30.

Final tuneups for the time trials caused two narrow escapes. Tony Gulotta of Kansas City, veteran 500-miler, suffered painful injuries when his speedster crashed into the northwest wall and rolled over twice. His riding mechanic, Carl Riscigno of Detroit, was cut, burned and shaken up.

Mauri Rose of Dayton, O., and his mechanic, Earl Frost of Indianapolis, evaded serious mishap when their sleek mount collided with the concrete barrier at the southeast turn.

Speedway officials blamed both accidents upon mechanical defects, rather than lack of control.

Two records were in jeopardy today as the competition for the pole position began. They were the 2 1/2 mile mark of 124.018 miles per hour and the ten-mile record of 122.391 miles per hour, established eight years ago by Leon Duray.

The country's most daring pilots, including Rex Mays, Babe Stapp, Dock MacKenzie, Wild Bill Cummings and Shorty Cantion, were out to shatter these marks.

Most of the drivers obviously had gas consumption worries, for they must negotiate the 25-mile qualifying trials on 2.5 gallons of gasoline.

Missouri Track Amazon Smashes Two World Marks

Memphis, Tenn., May 16.—(AP)—Helen Stephens, lanky 18-year-old girl from Fulton, Mo., stole the show from the male talent yesterday, as she unofficially smashed two world records in the second annual Memphis Cotton Carnival open track and field championships.

Miss Stephens stepped the 100 meters in 11.5 and the 200 meters in 23.6. The first mark bettered the world record held by Stella Walsh by three-tenths of a second and in the 200 she lowered her own record of 24.1 by five-tenths seconds.

Because her opponents insisted on handicaps, the Missouri girl's new records cannot be considered for official recognition. A. A. U. officials said.

PITCHERS TAKE PUNISHMENT AS BATTERS POUND

Only Three of 16 Who Started Yesterday Finished Games

By ANDY CLARKE
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pitching mound is a dangerous place to be these days with the major league batsmen taking all sorts of liberties at the plate.

For a pitcher to work a complete game is getting to be something of a rarity and many an ace flinger, not accustomed to being driven from the mound, has seen his choice of offerings pasted with abandon by the men who swing the clubs.

Only three of the 16 pitchers who started yesterday saw their task through. The White Sox beat the Yankees 9-7, blasting out 24 hits, four of them home runs; a total of 26 hits was made as the Senators beat the Browns 10-5; twenty as the Athletics downed the Tigers 6-5 and 2-1 as the Indians beat the Red Sox 7-2.

Bees Whip Cards
In the National circuit, the Bees beat the Cards 7-5 with 25 safeties, the Phillies conquered the Cubs 11-6 with a grand total of 30 hits, and the Giants shut out the Reds 2-0 with 15 hits bouncing off the bats. The lowest hit total in either league was 13, batted out as the Pirates beat the Dodgers 6-2. Altogether, 13 homers, were hammered out.

The only pitchers to start and finish were Jim Weaver of the Pirates who limited the Dodgers to four safe blows, Buck Newsom of the Senators who gave the Browns nine hits and Oral Hildebrand of Cleveland, who gave the big guns of the Boston Red Sox only six hits.

Joe Dimaggio, the Yankee rookie, continued his amazing batting with two doubles and two singles. Johnny Broaca, the former Yale star who was expected to be an important member of the Yankee pitching staff this year, was knocked from the box for the fifth time this year.

Leroy Parmelee of the Cards was slugged for ten hits and all but one of the Boston runs before giving way to Ed Heusser in the fifth while seven hurlers saw duty in the Cubs-Phillies slugging match.

Puerto Rican Is Looking Toward Canzoneri Title

New York, May 16.—(AP)—After a non-stop trip up through the lightweight ranks, Pedro Montanez of Puerto Rico is peering down championship alley, looking for Tony Canzoneri.

Montanez, unknown less than a year ago, rode triumphantly into the big-time last night when he whipped Leonard Del Genio of New York in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden. A crowd of 8,000 made an exciting evening of Pedro's debut in the big fight arena when some of the gallery fans put on battles of their own and an extra detail of police had to be summoned to restore order. Montanez weighed 133 pounds and Del Genio 135 1/2.

RISEING STAR

Watch for a new name to flash across the sports pages soon. It's that of pretty Peggy Graham, above, 18-year-old Los Angeles high school girl, who is preparing for a try at the women's national title this fall. Though she has played the game only four years, she recently won the California women's tournament, and twice has annexed the Southern California junior title. She consistently drives 225 yards.

Girl Using Only One Club Shoots Golf Links In 84

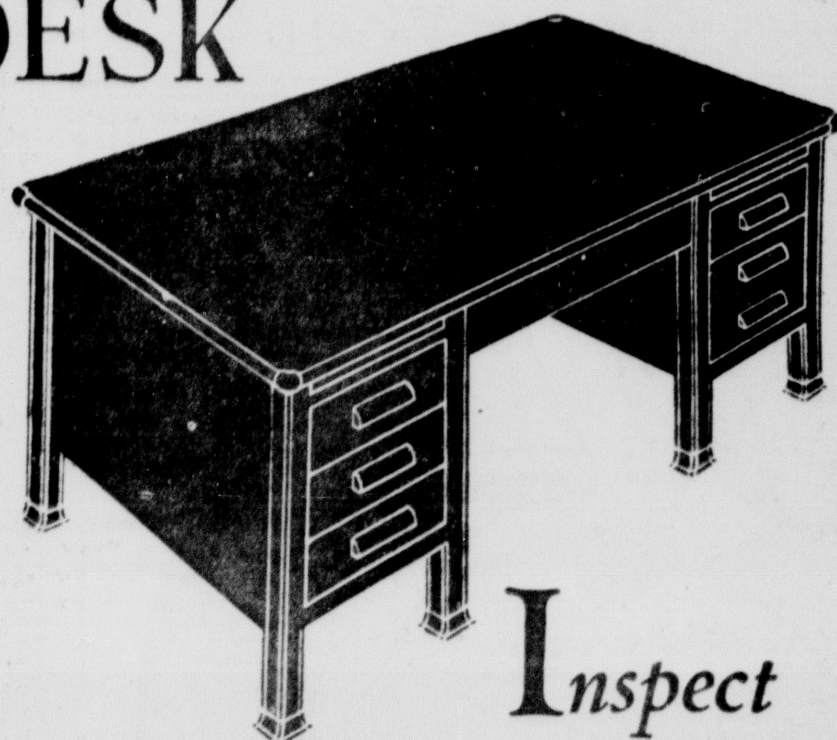

Southport, Eng., May 16.—(AP)—Attired in trousers and using only one club, Glorin Minoprio, a Frenchwoman, today trounced the Southport and Ainsdale course in 84 strokes, which, with her 90 of yesterday, may qualify her for the match play rounds in the British women's championship.

The club, which looks somewhat like a midiron, is especially difficult to use successfully in the sand, but she was in three traps and managed to get out without too much trouble.

A new type of DESK

Inspect the new Shaw-Walker Skyscraper Desk

There have been steel desks before, you say? But none with the features of this new Skyscraper Desk! It's an entirely new conception. The sturdy "Skyscraper" construction accounts for its noiselessness and for the smooth, silent action of the drawers. No need to touch cold metal in your work—drawer pulls are of Bakelite and the comfortable rolled-edge top is made of fine-textured, leather-like linoleum.

In appearance the new desk is the equal of the more expensive wood desks, even to the artistic beading of its quarter-round legs. In economy and durability it offers the advantages of steel construction. Before you make any change in office equipment see this new desk! In three finishes—mahogany or walnut with green top, or green with a warm brown top. Important! Come in and see the organization features; see how this new desk is organized for work.

Associated Press Summarizes Outstanding Events

A handful of men scattered throughout continental United States and its territories drew a decisive pencil through a name in a cluster of hundreds of others this week. Into their files of dead cases went data on Thomas H. Robinson,
Jr., kidnaper.

So far as the FBI were concerned, the "snatch racket" was bankrupt.

For every 200,000 or so persons in the United States there is a man known to J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Bureau of Investigation in the Department of Justice, as an agent, by the underworld he is known as a
"G" or government man.

Two years ago, when kidnapping in the wake of the Lindbergh tragedy was at its height, the "G-man" was clothed with new authority.
Today every major kidnap gang is broken up and armed robbery of national banks has been reduced from 600 to 700 a year to less than 400.

The list of "G-man" captures abounds with names of men known popularly as one-time public enemies. Hoover, round-faced and crisp spoken, calls them "public rats." Since the turn of the month four have been gathered in—Karpis, Robinson, Mahan and Campbell.

Under the American form of government, potential presidential nominees among the "outs" in an election year adopt one of two forms of pre-convention strategy.
One is to talk often and widely.
The other is to wait for the lightning to strike.

Senator Borah of Idaho and Col.
Frank Knox of Chicago have chosen to talk. Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas has not spoken so much.
Senator Vandenberg of Michigan and others wait for the lightning.

The efficacy of the respective strategies awaits determination at Cleveland June 9. This week the Idaho statesman ran full tilt against party organization again in Ohio. Beating him in the primaries was Robert A. Taft, son of the late president.

In a Newark, N. J., speech Borah said he would pursue the issue of monopoly control in industry outside the party if Republicans did not "take hold" of it.

President Roosevelt again snowed under Col. Henry Breckenridge in the Democratic preference vote.
Father Coughlin's National Union
for Social Justice made a surprising showing in the congressional primary in Ohio. Landon was assured of West Virginia's support at Cleveland. In Philadelphia former President Hoover called for a "restoration of American liberty."

—Austrian Uproar—
Dwelling in retirement in Belgium is the Archduke Otto, pre-tender to the throne of the Haps-burgs. Patient and confident, he bowed up this week as potential balm for Europe's newest trouble spot, Austria. The political house of this segment of the once great Austro-Hungarian empire was in disorder. Ousted from the co-dictatorship by Chancellor Kurt Schuschnigg was the rich, erratic Fascist, Prince Ernst Von Starheim-berg.

Europe looked for the eventual fall of the government in the squabble for control between the "Faterland front" and the Fascists. Particularly did Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy. Commentators said Starheimberg, commissioned by Premier Mussolini in 1929 to push Fascism in Austria, had fallen into the bad graces of Il Duce.

FOLLY and FAREWELL

By Marie Blizard
© 1936 Marie Blizard

BEGIN HERE TODAY
LINDA HONEY, 20, pretty, is left almost penniless by the sudden death of her father.

Her father, GARDINER, newspaper reporter, helps her get a job writing society news. Linda is in love with a rich, handsome man, but he is abroad to study singing. When Peter asks Linda to marry him she agrees, but postpones the wedding.

HONEY HARMON, film star, comes to New York, making a "personal appearance" tour, and buys a scenario written by Linda.
Linda tries to help him. To please him, she expresses ideas that are really Peter's, and thus gains a reputation for being able to discover new stars. Soon she is a celebrity.

Dix Carter comes to Hollywood to get into films as an actor.
Linda tries to help him. To please him, she invites BASIL THORNE, director, to her home though she dislikes and distrusts Thorne.

Peter Gardner writes a successful play and comes to Hollywood.

Thorne drives Linda to a mountain resort where the company is to be held to work next day. The others fall to arrive. There is trouble with the car and Linda and Peter are stranded. Thorne rescues them.

Thorne asks Linda to marry him. She refuses.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
CHAPTER XXII

THE next time Linda travelled the road to San Jacinto it was daylight and she was with the players in her company. She would not have recognized the deserted spot where she had been forced to spend the night with Thorne. Sets had been built, cabins made habitable, and now there was action. And she was much too busy to think again of that night.

They remained for nearly a fortnight. Linda heard nothing from Thorne, but the day she returned home he turned up unexpectedly at her apartment.

JUNIORS AND SENIORS OF TISKILWA SCHOOL TO BANQUET TONIGHT

Princeton—Members of the graduating class of the Tiskilwa High school as well as members of the Junior class will hold their annual banquet this evening at Bureau Valley Country Club. A three-course dinner will be served at 7 o'clock, and places will be laid for 60 guests.

The theme of a launching of a ship will be the motif of the decorations and program, which has been arranged by Miss Mabel Thompson of the Tiskilwa High school. Anchor place-cards will be used, and flowers and other decorations will be yellow and black, the Senior class colors.

Following the dinner Ross Manning, president of the Junior class, will act as toastmaster, and will welcome the seniors, the response to be made by Royal Gustafson, president of the Senior class.

Talks will be given by Helen Lawson, a Senior, and Roger Reynolds, a Junior, and the principal address of the occasion will be made by Herbert Kraushaar of the faculty. The topic of his address will be "Don't Give Up the Ship." At the conclusion of the program Snell's orchestra will furnish music for dancing, and cards also will be enjoyed.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR EDWIN W. GREEN, WILL BE HELD SUNDAY AFTERNOON
Edwin W. Green, 78, residing south of Princeton, passed away on Thursday evening at his home. He was born Oct. 19, 1857 in Arispe Township, and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Green. He is survived by his widow, a son, Ralph, his daughter-in-law, and three grandchildren. Rev. John Acheson will conduct the funeral services to take place at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the home, and burial will be in Oakland cemetery.

COUNTRY CLUB OPENING PARTY IS ATTENDED BY DINNER AND DANCE GUESTS
Inaugurating the summer social season at Bureau Valley Country club with a large attendance and a most enjoyable party was the event which took place Thursday under the chairmanship of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Highfield.

A number of the men members of the club arrived in the afternoon for a golf game, but no regular tournament was held.

Preceding the dinner, which was served at 7 o'clock, canapés and tomato juice cocktails were served in the ladies lounge and the men's locker room, after which the guests assembled for the three-course friend chicken dinner.

The arrangement and decoration of the tables received the enthusiastic approval of the guests, appointments being carried out in pastel shades with flowers and tapers.

A large round table was used as the central feature, from which other tables radiated like the spokes of a wheel. Three "flower-candles" were used in symmetrical arrangement for three of the tables, with long slender pastel colored tapers shedding their light amid lovely flowers placed in pastel bowls. The other tables also were adorned with spring flowers and tapers. Covers at the dinner were laid for 92 guests.

Later in the evening there were seven tables of contract, and the high score prizes were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Murphy. Other guests enjoyed dancing to the music furnished by Al Winkel's Royal Entertainers from Pekin.

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE FILED BY LOCAL MATRON IN BUREAU CIRCUIT COURT

A complaint for divorce and injunction was filed by Hazel McCue, Princeton, through her attorneys, J. L. Spaulding and Wilson & Wilson in the Circuit Court late Thursday afternoon. The complaint charges that Virgil McCue, the husband of the plaintiff, has been unfaithful to her with one Mary Doe. Under the lately enacted statute, it is unlawful to name the person charged without an order of the court, and so a fictitious name was used. It also charges extreme and repeated cruelty, and sets forth that the defendant is a man of violent and uncontrollable temper and that he swears at plaintiff and refuses to allow her sufficient money or credit to buy necessities for herself and three children. A divorce is asked, as well as temporary and permanent alimony. The plaintiff also asks an injunction issue forbidding McCue from interfering with plaintiff and against allowing him to dispose of his property to avoid paying alimony.

McCue, more commonly known as the proprietor of "Happy's Eat Shop" is a restaurant owner on North Main Street. The couple have been married since 1926 according to the complaint and have three children, Keith, Donna Jean and Susan K. McCue. Prior to the marriage, Mrs. McCue was Miss Gleason of north of Princeton.

BUREAU COUNTY BAR MEETS FOR ANNUAL SESSION AT BANQUET

The members of the Bureau County Bar Association met at the "Big House" at Spring Valley for the annual meeting of the organization on Thursday evening. Only five of the members were absent.

for the banquet. Circuit Judge Robert Larkin of Streator was in attendance, and was the guest of the association. After the banquet, election of officers for the ensuing year was held, and the following officers were re-elected: President, Judge C. N. Hollerich of Spring Valley, Chief Justice of the Illinois Court of Claims; vice president, Carey R. Johnson of Princeton; and secretary-treasurer, Merville L. Brown of Princeton. It was decided that all law offices in Bureau county would close Thursday afternoons beginning on May 21 and including the second Thursday in August.

Explains Law.
Cairo A. Trimble of Princeton, first vice president of the Illinois State Bar Association, then explained the proposed amendments to the probate and trust law proposed by the association. Mr. Trimble is a member of the State Association Committee on probate and trust law, and he asked for a fair hearing for the amendments.

County Judge Horace R. Brown spoke on the amendments, and also on the Old Age Pension law. Arthur H. Ellis, Democratic candidate for state's attorney, spoke briefly on the differences in the old and new practice acts, and Representative F. W. Rennie of Buda related a history of his passage of the practice act in the legislature. He advocated that the organizations of the state made their wishes known to the legislature in regard to proposed legislation instead of waiting until the law was adopted and then objecting to it. Attorney Paul D. Perona of Spring Valley spoke in favor of changes in the lower law, and was followed by Judge Larkin who related personal reminiscences of the earlier days of practice in LaSalle county. Carey Johnson moved that the association send a message to Perry D. Trimble who has been in Chicago for the past nine weeks, due to the illness of Mrs. Trimble, regretting their absence, and hoping for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Trimble. The suggestion was adopted.

Short Talk.
State's Attorney Josef T. Skinner made a short talk recalling some of the older lawyers formerly in practice in the county, and remarking that the younger attorneys were worthy successors to the older men. He also reminded the association that he was a candidate for the office of Justice of the Supreme Court from the Judicial District of which Bureau county is a part.

The meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the secretary. Each year the association meets in a different city in the county, and the next session will probably be held in Princeton or Sheffield.

Flick in 1896, he having preceded her in death in 1906. She leaves to mourn her passing one son, Merlyn Flick of Dixon, three sisters, namely Mrs. W. L. Morrison, Somerset, Pa.; Mrs. Anna McMullan of North Dakota, and Mrs. Ninna Sindlinger of Dixon; two brothers—Edwin Fox of Marion, Iowa and Elias Fox of Benedict, Nebraska, and a host of relatives and friends.

She was converted to Christ and the Christian way of life in her youth and has been a member of the Evangelical church ever since. She joined the Grace Evangelical church in Dixon in 1896 and was a faithful member until the time of her final illness. Her earthly song is ended but "the memory lingers still."

The tribute to mother paid by Kate Douglas Wiggin to motherhood is appropriate here.

"Most of all the other beautiful things in life come by twos and threes, by dozens and hundreds. Plenty of roses, stars, sunsets, rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, but only one mother in all the wide world."

"Oh mother, when I think of thee, 'Tis but a step to Calvary!"

Funeral services were held in the Grace Evangelical church of Dixon on Friday, May 15th, 1936 with the pastor, Rev. G. D. Nielsen officiating, assisted by Rev. Isaac Divan. Interment in Oakwood cemetery.
